

Programme

Cultured Meat - Opportunities and challenges in 2022

23 June 2022

09:00 - 09:10

WELCOME

Martin Krøyer Rasmussen,

Tenure Track Assistant Professor, Department of Food Science; Aarhus University, Denmark.

09:10 - 09:30

CURRENT STATUS ON CULTURED MEAT IN DENMARK AND THE NORDIC COUNTRIES

Jette F Young,

Associate Professor, Department of Food Science; Aarhus University, Denmark.

09:30 - 10:00

TURNING SATELLITE CELLS INTO FOOD

Anupam Abraham,

PhD student, Department of Food Science; Aarhus University, Denmark.

10:00 - 10:30

BREAK

10:30 - 11:00

BOVINE FETAL SERUM – FRIEND OR FOE?

Stig Skrivergaard,

PhD student, Department of Food Science; Aarhus University, Denmark.

11:00 - 11:30

SCAFFOLDS FOR CULTURED MEAT

Anna Ström,

Professor, Department of Chemistry and Chemical Engineering, Chalmers, Sweden.

&

Julie Gold,

Professor, Department of Physics, Chalmers, Sweden.

11:30 - 12:00

BREAK

12:00 - 12:30

ETHICS IN CULTURED MEAT

Carl Walter Matthias Kaiser,

Professor emeritus, Centre for the Study of the Sciences and Humanities, University of Bergen, Norway.

12:30 - 12:45

THE FUTURE OF CULTURED MEAT – THE PERSPECTIVE FROM A STARTUP COMPANY

Matias Ankjær,

CO-Founder and Head of Science, Meat Tomorrow, Denmark

12:45 - 12:55

POETIC MEAT

Jan Dideriksen,

CEO, Nordic Virtual Pastures

12:55 - 13:00

CLOSING REMARKS

Martin Krøyer Rasmussen,

Tenure Track – Assistant Professor, Department of Food Science; Aarhus University, Denmark.